From reading some reviews I feared the story would be all about sex and too explicit, but that was NOT the case. It was more tame than most romances and not overly explicit. Although I think that the story would be better and more suitable for a wider audience without the sex scene it didn't bother me. It was nicely done and definietly not porn like. I tried so many New Adult/Contemporary Romances in the last time and those were ful of sex and extremely explicit language. The word c*ck was used here like five times, I tried (and didn't finished books) that were NOT promoted as erotic romances where f*ck and c*ck were used each 50+ times each. That is too much! At least for me. I found the story to be entertaining and a light read. I liked the ending and that Ella never stopped dreaming and living her dream. She still does what she loves in the end. Yes, she was too good and selfless in some scenes, but I think that's how "Cinderella" just is. Sweet, good and selfless. Overall this a nice story but without anything memorable about it. I liked it and didn't regret reading it. 1 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. modern version of this fairy tale Von myrinawonderful, modern version of this fairy tale where the step mother and sisters are not the bad ones, the prince is not a prince and Cinderella is working for her living. Enjoyed every minute and look forward to read more of this author! 0 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. (not another cinderella story :) Von tanjaa fun and easy read! i really enjoyed this new take on one of my all time favourite fairy tales! def. checking out more work by jessica woodard

Kurzbeschreibung Eleanor Emberton isn't sitting around waiting for a handsome prince to rescue her. In fact, she's determined to save not only herself, but her whole family from her stepmother's headlong plunge into financial ruin. When she meets a mysterious man at the ball, romance is the last thing on her mind, but she can't help feeling an instant attraction. Before long she finds herself head over heels for her charming suitor. So what if he's left out a few teeny, tiny details? Before the Midnight Bells is a fresh look at the Cinderella story, with humor, intrigue, and a healthy dose of passion Kurzbeschreibung Eleanor Emberton isn't sitting around waiting for a handsome prince to rescue her.
