KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen1 von 1 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. 4,5 stars! loved itVon ClaudiaTegan was attacked four years ago, but most people thought she was cray when she tried to explain what happened. After the attack she starts to pretend everything is ok so that people leave her alone.she starts learning to defend herself, opens a Dojo to prevent her from being a victim again.than she sees the same man, who attacked her, murdering a women. for fear that people think her cracy again, she looks for a private detective. not only because of the murder she witnessed but also to get closure for her attack. the only detective who is willing to work for her on this case is a paranormal private detective - Gabe. first of all, I loved this book. the story is never easy and the characters both are very troubled. but they can't deny their attraction, which makes everything for them more difficult. there are some twists and turns, which make this story an interesting ride and a real good story. I loved the development from Tegan, first she is still the victim, even when she is able to protect herself. but she grows with the story and the developments. Gabe is sexy and a great hero. all in all: I loved the book!
