You can't put it down once you have started reading it.Von Ein KundeBertice Small portrays the strength that only a woman can have through her character, Zenobia. Zenobia goes from the daughter of a wealthy nomad to a powerful and respected Queen. She defeats those who said she couldn't and showed strength beyond belief. From her defeat of the Roman empire, to her defeat of her fear of the Roman race itself, she shows courage and insight. She gives woman of today the optimism to continue on through hardship. Zenobia also teaches how to lose the ones you love and still manage to overcome grief. The loss of her mother, through the viciousness of Roman guards, the loss of her husband the King, brought on by jealousy, and the loss of her father to old age. All of these things show woman how to overcome heartache. Through her adventures and courage this book is brought to life. Bertice Small did an amazing job with her book,Beloved.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. My first Bertice Small book...Von Ein KundeI have never before read anything by Ms. Small but 'Beloved' was immensely enjoyable. The depiction of Palmyra was so gorgeous I am off to the library to read up on this wonderful city as well as Zenobia herself. My only disappointment was Aurelian's departure from the book. After all those chapters where he was the main character along with Zenobia, he fizzled from sight. He is treated almost as an afterthought. I was aching to know how Zenobia and Marcus would escape Aurelian's grasp (for he was such a strong, ruthless individual) and yet his character went out with a whimper. His descent into madness could have been more detailed. Aurelian went from almost pitiable to monstrous in just a few pages. All in all however, I will gladly read more of Beatrice Small...0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Fantastic and very enticing...Beatrice Small does it again.Von Ein KundeAs a fan of Beatrice Small's books, I came across this book when I was shopping. Just after reading the description on the back cover, I was so intrigued I knew I had to buy this book. The main character Zenobia is very strong like Cailin in "Love Remember, Me". She was lucky to fall in love with two men. I especially enjoyed reading how she became reunited with Marcus after being enslaved by the wicked Aurelian. It seems to me that both Zenobia and Marcus are two soulmates fated to be together. Just reading page after page, you just can't put the book down. This one is definitely magnificent!
