Ein tolles BuchVon Isabella NortonIch habe vor einigen Jahren die deutsche Fassung dieses Buches gelesen. Es hat mich unglaublich fasziniert. Auf Englisch ist es genauso gut wenn nicht sogar noch spannender. Tracy Grant eine gutes Gespr um Spannung in einer Geschichte auf zu bauen und diese bis zum Schluss zu halten. Es gefällt mir, dass ihre Figuren sehr vielschichtig sind. Nicht nur die beiden Hauptfiguren, sondern auch die anderen.

Melanie and Charles Fraser have traded the moment-to-moment dangers of the war-ravaged Continent for the glittering world of the British ton. But behind the ornate panelling and stately columns of this unfamiliar world lurk dangers every bit as deadly as those Melanie and Charles faced in the war. An assassination and a trail of clues that lead back to the war and the French Revolution itself plunge Charles and Melanie once more into the danger that has always been the common ground in their marriage. As they search for the truth in a labyrinth of lies, they discover that the answers cut shockingly close to their friends and family - including the seemingly perfect Honoria Talbot. And that beneath the shimmering veneer of London society, there lies an establishment that is rotten to its very core.
