BoringVon readerIt is a nice addition to the Consequences saga however not as a continuation of the dark psychological thriller but as a contemporary romance novel. The Rawlings are now dealing with real life issues such as mental health, continued therapy sessions, medications, and the possibility of having more children. Courtney gets closer to Claire and Emily still tries to patronize her sister. I missed a scene where Claire clearly states how bad it was for her to be insulated in Everwood not knowing about Tony and that her sister in refusing to listen to others caused that long stay. Claire puts her foot down towards Tony and Phil but never towards her sister. One of the more interesting parts of this novel are the packages and letters from unknown individuals that continue to arrive at the estate. The security team is involved in the investigations and in the end solves the problems, no surprise there. This story is not only missing the spine-tingling drama but also new developments in the love department apart from some romance for Phil ( maybe A.R. is laying the ground for his own book). It is light, happy, and a snippet on how the Rawlings are doing. If you read A Peek Beyond The Consequences in the anthology Breathless you neednt read this book. Just some more scenes where Claire has to look in Tonys dark chocolate eyes and he craves her green eyes. 2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. nett, aber... Von valentina attila... ohne jede spannung. eigentlich wird nur altbekanntes noch einmal erzählt, sexszenen sind ohne details und hchstens lauwarm. besser, man lt dieses letzte buch der Serie weg und schwelgt in Erinnerungen an die vorangegangenen, die richtig gut waren. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. 5 Stars of course Von brigova Amazing as always!
