very much Von Customer It is a nicely written story with a lot of heart. I enjoyed it very much especially as I got it as a freebie.

Kurzbeschreibung Having endured years of an abusive marriage, Grace Evans finally walks out on her loveless marriage and boards a train for York. Within hours of arriving in the ancient city, her destiny is changed forever by a portrait in her hotel room. Haunted by the ghost of Robert Hamilton and confronted with a portrait of herself painted four hundred years ago, Grace has every reason to doubt her sanity. Then Grace finds herself four hundred years in the past, in the bed of the man who has haunted her. A man she barely knows but who, with just one kiss, filled the empty space that had been her shattered heart. How are Grace and Robert connected to Simon and Corran of When Fate Dictates? I'd love to tell you, but that would ruin the surprise, so I'm sorry folks, you are just going to have to find out in Entwined, book three of the 'Highland Secret Series'.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Elizabeth Marshall is the writing alter ego of a lady born in St Marys Hospital, at the Marianhill Monastery, in the province of Natal, South Africa and was brought up in a small, rural Natal village surrounded by a large Scottish farming family. Her primary education was delivered by Nuns from the monastery in which she was born. Through secondary school into adulthood, Elizabeths life centered on a love of music, reading, writing and history. After Elizabeth married she settled in the UK with her husband. She has worked at the Charing Cross and Westminster Medical School in England, Nottingham Social Services in England and is currently a Director of an IT Project Management Consultancy. Elizabeth lives in the city of York, England with her husband and children. She spends her spare time with her head in a book or her fingers on the keyboard writing one.
