HOLY FREAKING!!! ARE YOU SERIOUS???? stars Von Cassandra Where to start??? Koenraad and Monroe are finally mated and engaged. Things could be so relaxing...the Caribbean sea, millions so no one has to work, hot mating. BUT there's still the fear Koenraad has over Brady, his son, that he desperately tries to protect from his awful mother Victoria. Not only that, Victoria is on a vendetta against Monroe, against Koenraad, against the Council. In all of this, she's hiding something and it seems like something big. Or why do she and her uncle Darius show up at the aquarium and put something in a tank? There's still the sick in the ocean that makes shifters sick. Cleo has pulled me in again in this series. You are constantly on the edge, whether be it from fear of what will happen next or close to coming because these two are so hot. Koenraad is the big, sexy guy that's always in control of everything and everyone that yet is brought to his knees by the passion and love for Monroe, and his love and need to protect his son. This constant battle inside him is greatly written and makes you feel for him. At the beginning Monroe was this average girl that always did what everyone expected from her. But ever since she met Koenraad, she changed. She became more determined to fight for her love, to fight her own fears to spend the life with him, and she becomes more stubborn to get what she wants. I'm so eager to read the next part in this series as Cleo never reveals any secrets, just adds more hints. Great job Cleo!!!
