Von Helen FitzGerald : Bloody Women before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Bloody Women:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. not my kind of bookVon Susanne BodensteinAlthough I saw many favorable reviews this book was not for me. The protagonist (s) is a nutcase with severe psychological issues. For me it was 'access denied', I couldn't understand her actions, nor could I understand the humour, although I am a great fan of black humour. Reading it was a waste of time but at least it's short.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Hach!! Von schlaumeis Smarte Ermittler, coole Story, immer noch mal eine neue Wendung, Spannung pur - herrliches Buch, dass man kaum weglegen kann! Perfekt für faule Leseurlaubstage!

Kurzbeschreibung 'A delight to find something new ... funny, moving, horrifying and compelling' - Times Literary Supplement 'FitzGerald ... is adept at arresting openings, tense cliffhangers and tumultuous climaxes' - The Herald 'Bloody Women is delicious, ingenious, inventive and mordantly funny. Helen FitzGerald has a real skill for making the totally absurd and goofy, thoroughly logical and reasonable' - Big Beat from Badsville Returning to Scotland to organise her wedding, Catriona is overcome with the jitters. She decides to tie up loose ends before settling permanently in Tuscany, and seeks out her ex-boyfriends. Only problem is, they all end up dead and Catriona is the prime suspect.
