Von Janette Rallison : Blue Eyes and Other Teenage Hazards (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Blue Eyes and Other Teenage Hazards (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. romantische Komdie fr Teenie-Girls und JunggebliebeneVon Viel-Lese-MausJanette Rallison hat einen super Schreibstil. Von Anfang an wird man von der Geschichte gefangen genommen, es gibt viel zu lachen und ein wenig zum Nachdenken.Wer eine se, leichte Liebesromance mag, die trotzdem nicht inhaltslos ist, ist mit diesem Roman bestens bedient. Hätte es diese Bücher doch schon zu meiner Teenie-Zeit gegeben, dann hätte ich mich selbst besser verstanden. ;-)

Kurzbeschreibung Cassidy knows everything about Chad--everything, that is, except how to get him to notice her. Someday, somehow, she vows, those deep blue eyes are going to look her way. But romance is more complicated than all her teen novels have led her to believe. Guys. Is there any understanding them? Is there a psychology behind the reason they love their cars? A methodology to their fist bumps? It's a subject she doesn't mind researching. Cassidy has always been happy being the studious, reliable type . . . until Elise and her good-looking eighteen-year-old brother move into the neighborhood. Elise is determined to introduce Cassidy to the partying life. But will Elise's carpe diem ways land Cassidy in more trouble than she's prepared for? Can a girl be smart and have fun too? Cassidy is about to find out. Publishers Weekly has called Rallison's YA contemporary romances "Hilarious."
