A delightful new voice in RomanceVon Deborah MacgillivrayMallory Kane impressed me with her strong voice. Some writers come by this instinctively, other work at it, some never find it. Kane is a strong in this area so she makes this tense tale very enjoyable. She is also very strong in creating character that leap of the pages, so I see more enjoyable tales from this fresh writer. I will be ordering her other works due to the strength of this book.Holly Frasier's life is clouded in troubles. Her husband died mysteriously, and then years later, a fiance vanishes. Warning bells really sounds when the detective investigating the situation dies too. It's enough to bring in the FBI to protect Holly.Making a target of himself Jack O'Hara goes through a fake marriage with Holly. The detective who died was Jack's good friend. Before his death he and contacted Jack about the case, but Jack had been too busy to get involved. So he is not only out to protect Holly, but avenge his friend's murder. Holly is attracted to the sexy FBI man, but resents her presence in her life. She does not want to believe some man - a man she knows - is killing anyone who loves her. Kane is a clear, polished writing signaling she is a writer to watch.

Kurzbeschreibung SOMEONE WAS WATCHING HER And leaving her disturbing poems and handwritten notes signed "Forever, Yours." The man entered Holly Frasier's house silently, taking her most cherished personal possessions and taunting her with the subtle threats that he was always nearby. With Holly's life in jeopardy, tough-as-nails Jack O'Hara was the only person she could trust. To flush out the stalker, she agreed to a fake marriage with the sexy FBI operative, who promised to protect her at all costs. Within Jack's arms Holly found a safe haven, and in his bed, exquisite passion. But could Jack discover her deadly admirer's identity before the stalker intervened and destroyed their chances at forever?
