Awesome if you like f/f and a lot of variety in one anthologyVon Ni NaWhen I read the stories as part of the Love Spanks 2015 event, hosted by Anastasia Vitsky, I was already thrilled, because of the huge variety in stories and styles. All stories are about female/female relationships, but in enormously different situations. Circumstances, settings, period of time are so different in each of the stories that I am sure there is something to be found for everybody. This also includes the degree of steaminess in the stories. The characters are female and the topics which are covered are as variable as can be. Ill just give a few examples. There is the funny and playful time of an author with her shapeshifting Liger. I have never read any shapeshifting stories before but these two were as easy-going with each other as can be. Then there is a scene of absolute power play where one Domme dominates her former submissive lover who has meanwhile become a Domme too. If you are into power dynamics within relationship Id say this is definitely an awesome must-read. On a different note, there are Sherrie and Desiree and this is a wonderful and steamy seduction scene. The story afterwards shows what Madeline does to broach the issue of domestic discipline to her partner. In the following story there are Sadie and Rhea and although it starts with a briefcase and an ordinary office situation, the development is more than unexpected and also includes a steaming hot scene between these two. In Bank Shot two women have a game of pool and I found the way they were attracted towards each other was naughty from the start. Loved it. And this enjoyable diversity continues throughout the anthology, e.g. you have the nineteenth century Alaskan gold rush as the background of one story, whereas it becomes pretty fantastic in another one. No surprise, I have a few favourites, but it wouldnt be fair to focus on these, so I tried to stick to general information. What most stories have in common is that they introduce characters and stories that are covered in greater detail in other novels by the respective author. So, this anthology is also a great offer to find out which story to read, which book to buy or maybe which one to avoid. I found the price for so much reading ridiculously low and think this anthology is worth more because the variety of topics, characters, styles of writing are so impressive. In addition you can also see that most of the authors are experienced in their craft and simply know how to create exciting stories which cover extremely different dynamics, relationships and dates. Definitely an awesome read, Id say not only for lovers of the f/f genre.
