KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. For everybody who loves Chick-Lit!Von Joe the FreakThe short abstract already is good. The story and the characters interesting. New York and Paris are the backgrounds for the story of Zara and Gregor and gives everything a multi-cultural touch.Zara is from a rich family and wants revenge for the loos of the family fashion business. Her mother lost it to Gregor. But Gregor things she is a arrogant "princess". But though their story both have to change their opinion.For everybody who loves Chick-Lit!

Kurzbeschreibung Zara is a young woman from a good family. For many she is the perfect lady -- beautiful, well-educated, and accomplished. In reality, however, she is a party girl, living a life of drugs, alcohol, and sex with many different men. Her perfect family has never been perfect either. Zara's father was forced to give up his political career when it was discovered that he had slept with a girl not much older than his daughter. Zara's mother does not want to accept the reality of her age, and lost her heart to Gregor, a young, good looking model turned banker. She surrendered the family business to him and with that, her remaining pride. For this, Zara wants to avenge her mother. The banker symbolizes the failure of her family, and with all her willpower and cunning, she plans her revenge. But Gregor has his own plans for Zara. . . .
