Von R.J. Lewis : Loving Lawson (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Loving Lawson (English Edition):

It left me hanging and now am gonna have to wait for god knows how long for the second part. I can't blame anybody tho coz I knew of that fact beforehand. Often enough in such cases I couldn't be bothered with the sequel if the read is just so-so. But this one is actually pretty great so I guess

I'll be checking. No pre-order option and no release date for the second book so I might missed it altogether. That would be s****. Ah well...at least I've enjoyed this read immensely. Promising characters and interesting storyline. Heath's a sweetheart, the good Lawson, a fighter and hottttt. Then there's Allison, the (ex?) of Ryker, the other Lawson brother, the (bad?) one. I've not much of an opinion about her. Maybe because the book is not yet complete to fully formed her character. Either way, she's at the heart of everything between these two brothers and their conflict. This book centered on the relationship between Heath and Allison. There are some love scenes but not too explicit. There's next to nothing about what makes Ryker tick, why he did what he did. It's just getting into that when the book ended with a cliffhanger...big time. Quite a gamble what these kinda authors are taking with this form of writing and marketing technique. It's frustrating like hell. But the really good ones could probably got away with it, and this one is one of them. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. sorry .. but no.. Von angyit wasn't really exciting and there are so many stories out there which are just like this one: illegal things, fighting .. blablabla.. was there. had that. and then there is the cliff hanger - sorry but no thank u
