Von L.V. Lloyd : Lunar Affair (English Edition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Lunar Affair (English Edition):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Aurigan Space SeriesVon Kerstin LudwigGays and Sci-Fi is something you find pretty rare. The Sci-Fi Genre is one of the most conservative Genres ever. Love Stories are for straight couples. Period.Until you read L.V. Lloyd. The author created a world, consistently and well developed. The people are not behaving out of character, they are painted carefully and the stories itself are written fluidly (and good readable, even for me, seeing that english is not my native language).All in all: Read it. You won't be disappointed.

KurzbeschreibungLieutenant Jack Alexander sat morosely over his drink in the corner of the bar and watched the man he loved being expertly seduced. He had waited years for Marc to return his affections, perhaps now was the time to move on - stop fixating on the one man who was out of reach, his best friend, Marc Duran. But when Major Ethan Patisson is sent to the planet Mayia to investigate the theft of hundreds of illegal weapons, Duran comes under the spotlight, and Jack can't help stepping in to save him. When Jack finds himself caught in the middle between Patisson and Duran, he discovers that unrequited love might soon be the least of his problems. A gay science fiction romance. Fourth book in the Aurigan Space Saga series, although it can be read as a stand alone story.

ber den Autor und weitere MitwirkendeAfter thirty years of working with the unemployed, coping with threats, tears and broken lives (and these were only from fellow staff), LV Lloyd decided it was time to make her escape. And what better place to go than the world of m/m romance? She started writing Dangerous Tension, her first ebook, years ago, but put it aside due to work and family commitments. In 2012, she dusted off the foolscap pages stored under her bed, finished the story and turned it into a book. Since then, she has written three more ebooks in the Aurigan Space Saga series, and numerous short stories. Lunar Affair is the fourth book in the series. LV Lloyd lives in Adelaide, Australia, with her family and two cats. In her spare time she enjoys fishing and visiting the many local wineries.
