KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Short and sweetVon Kindle JunkieAn amusing though predictable short story. An entertaining read for an afternoon or evening. Enticing start of a series. I intend to read more.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Modern romance with a scottVon MagritteThis is a modern romance with an American girl and a sexy Scott. Lucy is traveling to Scotland instead of her cousin. She feels uncomfortable lying about her identity especially to sexy Ian. But the lie is the reason they met. Their relationship blooms, but time is their enemy. How can she leave after a week? And how can he let her go?The novel is less than 100 pages long. So it is a fast and nice read. We have time to discover the main characters, but not in real depth. The story is simple and nice. Looking for a short romance This one is nice! Enjoy the read and feel free to comment. MBTM

KurzbeschreibungIn Kam McKellars fun, sexy contemporary Scottish romance, Ian MacLarenretired U.S. soldier turned Innkeeper is keeping his family legacy going. He and his brothers have moved to Scotland to farm the land, restore and rent out cottages, and convert the west wing of the five-hundred year old Balmorie Castle into a guest house. The last thing on his mind is a Highland romance. But tell that to his first visitor... Lucy Walker isn't a travel writer, but she's taking her cousin's place and going to Scotland anyway. Why she gets talked into these things, she doesn't know. But what she does know is that Ian MacLaren is not the type of Innkeeper she was expecting. Her plan to take notes and record all of Balmorie's amenities, so her cousin can then write a review, becomes more and more difficult to do when she has her very own Scottish Highlander as her tour guide. One who soon finds out the sexy travel writer isn't who she claims to beMad About Plaid is the first in the author's MacLaren's of Balmorie series of humorous, fast-paced, short contemporary romances with a Scottish Highland twist. The full series:1. Mad About Plaid2. A Scot Like You3. The Trouble with Kilts4.
