DurchschnittVon SilviaDie Geschichte "Maid for Martin" beginnt wirklich vielversprechend. Der Grundgedanke hinter der Story ist gut und es wird konsequent Spannung aufgebaut.Leider neigt die Autorin nach einer Weile allerdings dazu - vermutlich in der Hoffnung, die Spannung zu halten - abzuschweifen. Am Anfang ist das ja o.k., aber sptestens nach der Hlfte des Buches ist es doch etwas nervig. Sie reizt die Ausgangssituation wirklich gnadenlos aus und bekommt die Kurve - meiner Meinung nach - viel zu spt.Die Folge ist, dass die Geschichte ganz abrupt, eigentlich noch mitten in der Handlung, endet. Es wird dann auf den Folgebund verwiesen.Wenn dieser allerdings ebenso langatmig ist wie "Maid for Martin", wei ich nicht, ob ich nicht auf das Wissen um den Fortgang der Handlung verzichte.Dennoch 3 Sterne von mir fr die gute Grundidee.

It's a dream job, working as a live in maid, for the wealthy Hollywood star, Marin Taylor.
