short, strange Von Magritte 83 pages of erotic discovery. Libby has dreams of being submitted, chained and so much more. So when she finds a dating service with exactly this profile and ... she wants it. So she accepts to spend some days as the slave/ Maid of Gavin Huntley for 2 weeks. But at the end will two weeks be enough? The story is short (83 pages) and quiet erotic, but I could not really like the characters. It is a fast erotic read that you will enjoy if you don't expect too much depth. This book is part of a series so there is more if you like it. Enjoy the read MBTM

Kurzbeschreibung This is a novella of approximately 26,000 words in length. An excerpt from the first novella in the series, MAID FOR IT, is included at the end of this file. COVER COPY: Insurance actuary Libby Beckett is the epitome of a successful, independent, modern woman. With her six figure salary, she has a condo overlooking the beach, a BMW, and a closet full of fabulous shoes. So why isn't she happy? And why do her fantasies always involve whips, bondage, and sexual slavery? Her desires are impossible to explain her buttoned-down accountant boyfriend, which is why when she stumbles across a website for a quasi-dating service for submissive women called Maid for It, she signs up. She's quickly matched to Gavin Huntley, an engineer and inventor possessed of a small fortune and his own private island in the Caribbean. After carefully weighing the risks and rewards, as any good actuary should do, Libby breaks it off with her boyfriend and heads to Gavin's island for what she promises herself will be two weeks to explore her darkest, dirtiest desires. When her time is up, she'll say her safe word and, as outlined in Maid for Its contract, Gavin will be required to release her. But Gavin knows what Libby truly needs, and it's not to be free. She's made for pleasure his pleasure and he intends to put her to good use. Forever. WARNING: This story contains graphic depictions of sex and sexual practices some readers may find disturbing, including group sex, anal sex, f/f sex, and dubious consent. The author does not endorse or encourage such practices. Kurzbeschreibung This is a novella of approximately 26,000 words in length.
