Brava! Bravissima! Von Nightingale This beautifully written collection of stories about the Phantom of the Opera proves to be a wonderful treasure and resource of "what-if" fantasies - not only specifically to phans, but generally to everyone in search of a mature and truthful depiction of human relationships, including all aspects of love, passion, desire, truth, illusion, guilt, trauma, fear and the different facets of the life of an artist. This story collection is definitely one of my favorite phantom-based books and I am amazed by the advantages of the genre of the short story: the stories are no less epic than comparable novels and novellas. I'm truly looking forward to reading Michelle Rodriguez's other stories and novels and I'd love to read more about her versions of the minor Phantom characters as well. :)

Kurzbeschreibung The Phantom of the Opera is a story about love, obsession, music, and passion. For the past few years, published author Michelle Rodriguez has been sharing her stories with the Phantom community, exploring the original characters and giving them new adventures and reasons for hope. Take a journey with her through a love story as sensual as it is eternal. Manifestations of a Phantom's Soul is a collection of ten of her most loved stories online combined with two that have never been read before. Whether in the mood for something dark and passionate or something sweet and romantic, you will find a story featuring the disfigured Opera Ghost and his true love and learn that it is more than a face that defines a man.

ber den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Michelle Gliottoni-Rodriguez earned a Bachelor of Music in Vocal Performance from Saint Xavier University in 2002. She has been studying voice privately for sixteen years and is a student of Dr. Jan Bickel. Michelle has won various musical awards, including Semi-Finalist at the National Association of Teachers of Singing competition, and Third Place in the Josephine Lipuma Vocal Scholarship Competition, and in 2002, she was the recipient of the Nicholas Raimondi Scholarship. Her musical theatre performance experience includes the roles of Nettie Fowler in Carousel and Agnes Gooch in Mame. Through St. Xavier University, she has portrayed Sister Genevieve in Suor Angelica, Rosalinde in Die Fledermaus, the Countess in The Marriage of Figaro, and Yum-Yum in The Mikado and sang roles in scenes from The Marriage of Figaro, Fidelio, The Old Maid and the Thief, The Impresario, and Suor Angelica. This spring, she will be playing the Queen of the Night in The Magic Flute. Also an avid writer since her youth, she published her first novel in August of 2011, a Gothic romance titled Opera Macabre. She is following that with the publication of the first of her angel series The Devils Galley. She has written over 25 novels and hopes to keep publishing and sharing her stories with the world. She has also been posting stories based on The Phantom of the Opera for the past 2 years and has a worldwide following, including having stories translated to German and Russian for other fan bases. But despite keeping busy as a singer and an author, her most important job of all is being a mom to her two beautiful children, Noah and Cordelia.
