Von Reese Monroe : Marked By Hades (Bound By Hades) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Marked By Hades (Bound By Hades):

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. great world, good story and a lovely relationshipVon ClaudiaThis is the second book in the series "Bound by Hades" and although I did not read the first book, I really liked it and it was possible to understand the world-building.Justin is the companion of a Gatekeeper, his brother Theo, and he has waited 911 years for a Mate - although that is probably the wrong expression. He treaded the possibility of getting a Mate like his brother. But when he meets Yvonne, everything changes for him - and not only in a good way.this story was very complex and there were some parts in it, where I really had troubles with the story - which are also the reason why this book only gets 4 stars and I really considered giving it only 3 stars. (view spoiler)the relationship between Justin and Yvonne was very complex because of who she was before which made the whole storyline much more intense.I loved the whole idea of the "Shomrai" and will definitely continue this series. Reese Monroe was able to link an interesting world-building with an intense storyline and great characters. I loved all the characters, and will go back to read Theo and Sadies story. I can't wait to read the next books because some of the secondary characters are quite interesting.I hope Reese Monroe will continue to include all the characters, as they are, in the next books as well because I would love to see Justin and Yvonne again.Disclaimer: Received an ARC in exchange for an honest review
