Von Leigh Greenwood : Married by High Noon before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Married by High Noon:

KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Leigh Greenwood does it again! Von GoldiThis book is full of vivid characters that make you wish Iron Springs was a real town! This is the second book centralized in Iron Springs. The first is "Just What the Doctor Ordered." You get drawn in to the small town atmosphere as you struggle with Gabe and Dana. Joint custody is left to Dana and Gabe after Gabe's sister dies of cancer. Dana has an antique business in New York and Gabe makes furniture in Iron Springs. The conflict is over Danny, a cute little two year-old. Leigh Greenwood really draws you in to the struggle of promises kept. Danny's father was not interested in him until Mattie's death, and he has decided that he wants him. The only way Dana and Gabe can keep Danny is by getting married. Although it is a marriage of convience, past feelings surge forward as Dana struggles with returning to the small town she visited as a child. Dana and Gabe roll along finding out they have more in common than just loving Danny. They find out they love each other...This is a modern Greenwood in an old fashioned setting! I recommend it! Also, get the first book, "Just What the Doctor Ordered." It's worth it to revisit these characters again!

Kurzbeschreibung Since childhood Dana had dreamed of marrying her best friend's big brother. But plainspoken Gabe couldn't picture glamorous Dana as his small-town bride, and he sent her packing. Now, though, Dana was coming home to Iron Springs, named joint guardian with Gabe to his sister's little boy. And the only way they could keep precious Danny was to wed TOMORROW! This husband, this child, this family would complete her. But could Dana bear a mere marriage of convenience to the man of her dreams? Or would Gabe finally open his eyes to her love before their wedding at high noon?
