Sarah (narrator) thinks. Hope to read more stories from the author

Kurzbeschreibung In her debut publication, Me and Mom Fall for Spencer, author Diane Munier introduces us to her principal characters - the quirky Sarah Sullivan and her mysterious neighbor, Spencer Gundry. Both world weary, these two captivating people charmingly begin their journey together while negotiating the vegetative state of Sarah's beloved garden. It's a love story abundant with delightful characters who are graced with witty and meaningful dialogue that gifts the reader with profound and brilliant insight into our own human condition. We see Sarah and Spencer's relationship evolve from an uncertain flirtation into a deep abiding love that ultimately allows both of them to shine the healing light of that love upon the darkest events of their lives. And with that act their garden grows. A master storyteller, Diane Munier slowly reveals to us, using powerful imagery and words of wisdom and fellowship, the undeniable healing power of love. A must read - you will not be disappointed.
