again. And I wasn't disappointed. This time it's all about Dacia and Preston. You meet Dacia in the first Edenton novel where she is a real menace and tries to keep the main characters apart. After a change of heart, now it's her time for a happy end. But of course not without a good struggle before it. I really enjoyed Dacia and Preston's story. It was great to see two people who were a little unfortunate in the last books finally get their happiness.

Kurzbeschreibung Some scars run soul deep. Preston finally knows what he wants, but it's an uphill battle to win her confidence. Dacia has been hurt countless times, including by his own hand. Despite her accusations, he wants what's best for her. Dacia struggles with her inability to trust. Her mother has always been too wrapped up in her own life to pay attention. Her father only comes around when it benefits him. Dacia no longer believes she'll ever come first. Remus is a fugitive on Earth and in Faerie. His ungrateful daughter refuses to help, even when a mage nearly tracks him down. His best hope is pitting Dacia and Preston against each other. Ultimately, Dacia must choose. Can Preston help mend her scarred heart? Or will her father's corrupt plan spoil Dacia's chance at happiness?
