And the tears kept falling.....Von Ein KundeAs with any book by Garlock I was immediately drawn to Shannon and Pack's relationship. The ending was the all time best ending I have ever read in a romance fiction. My cheeks were wet, my nose was running and I just didn't care. I HAD to get to the end of this story! A wonderful read for all those hopeless romantics and incurable lovers of historicals0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Tender and endearing love storyVon Ein KundeFrankly, I'm shocked that more people haven't written reviews on this book. Mara Shannon and Pack grab you from the first chapter. You can empathize with Mara SHannon and you dream of your own Pack to rescue you from an unfeeling world. This is a love story that you will never forget.0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Loved it!Von Ein KundeI enjoyed this book...Mara Shannon and Pack were wonderful characters. I especially loved Trell and Travor McCall (the twins). Their story is even better (Sweetwater}. I have enjoyed all of Dorthy Garlocks book that I have read so far!

With a derringer in her pocket and her heart beating wildly, she rides toward the home she barely remembers - only to find a wounded man, Pack Gallagher, lying across the trail. Looking into his midnight-blue eyes as proud as her own, Mara knows that here is a man who can help defend her land from outlaws and with whom she can share her deepest secrets. But Pack is a fighter with a temper. And he could just as easily break her heart as make all her dreams come true.
