up and forget all your problems book Von Merri62105@aol.com Fern Michaels newest book, Vegas Heat, brings all the Coleman clan back along with new characters, The Thornton family. This book one in a trilogy, that only Fern Michaels can write with such humor, sadness, and tragedy brings the characters alive to the reader. You cry, smile, laugh along with them as you cuddle up with the book and ultimately forget all your troubles. How could one family have so many problems? And you thought your life was hard. Fanny Thornton has to be the ultimate wife, mother symbol. She endures more in her lifetime than any other woman I have ever read about. Her character comes alive as you read the book. She is your mother, sister, aunt, or best friend. I hated Ash for what he put her through early in their marriage, but with this book, he comes through as her best friend. And Simon, that guy needs professional help fast. To think he was portrayed as the knight in shining armor and how fast he turned around after the i do's were said. After Fanny devoted her entire life to h0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. GREAT GREAT GREAT GREAT GREAT!!!!!! Von Ein Kunde Fern Michaels does it again. This book is wonderful the Vegas books are just great! The characters are so wonderful, you really feel like you know them. Recommend highly getting these books as you just can't put any of them down until you finish them. Loved it! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Absolutely wonderful book! Von Ein Kunde Another wonderful one by Fern Michaels. Can't decide which is the best, the Vegas series or the Texas series. They are all so good, I just love them. As usual the writing was superb!!
