Nette RomanzeVon S.Das Buch beschreibt eine Liebesbeziehung zwischen zwei jungen Männern, die auf der Isle of Wight leben. Dort treffen sich Friseurazubi Mark und Sam im Friseursalon, wo Sam seine Freundin begleitet. Mark ist sofort hin und weg. Durch einen Zufall treffen sich die beiden Männer einige Tage später am Strand wieder, es entwickelt sich eine Freundschaft. Diese birgt aber Probleme, da sich der offen schwul lebende Mark in Sam verliebt. Beiden Protagonisten verbringen mehr Zeit freundschaftlich miteinander, bis sich bei Sam Probleme auftun.Das Buch ist ein annehmbarer Zeitvertreib. Leider bleiben für mich die Entwicklungen der Protagonisten besonders die von Sam zu oberflächlich, teils sprunghaft und nicht richtig glaubwürdig. Solche Entwicklungen beschreibt die Autorin in ihren anderen Romanen wie z.B. der "Collars Cuffs" Reihe deutlich besser. Daher nur 3 Sterne.

KurzbeschreibungWhen trainee hairdresser Mark sees Sam for the first time in the salon, its lust at first sight. Sam is Marks living, breathing fantasy guy. He couldnt be more perfect. Of course, theres the tiny, insignificant detail that Sam has a girlfriend. Hell.. A chance meeting on Marks favourite beach brings the two men together, and Mark finds himself with a new friend. As they spend more time together, Mark grows to see Sam less as an object for his lust and more as someone who just fits. But falling in love with your new best friendespecially when hes straightis bound to bring heartache in the end.Sam likes Mark. As in, he really likes him. And hed like to get to know him even better. But Sam has secrets. There are things going on in his life that he cant bring himself to tell Mark about, because the shame Sam feels is too much to bear, and not something he ever wants to share with another living soul. And if Mark ever finds out how Sam really feels about him, and the fact that hes lied to him. Sam cant take that chance.Then one drunken night in the pub changes everything.KurzbeschreibungWhen trainee hairdresser Mark sees Sam for the first time in the salon, its lust at first sight.
