nettVon emmaich hab's schon zweimal gelesen. ja, es bedient klischees, aber welcher liebesroman tut das nicht. hier kommt der kinderwunsch dazu, der bei manchen frauen wirklich so berwltigend werden kann, da alles andere in den hintergrund tritt.3 von 3 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Average/OkayVon Customer"Waking Up Married" is a novel I would classify as average/okay. While it was entertaining and enjoyable enough to read, it was also quite clich-ridden as it used many plot elements associated with waking-up-married-to-a-stranger-after-a-drunken-night stories.I would have loved a slower pace and a better character development as I didn't find it too believable how the main characters would fall for each other after such a short amount of time - especially since the main character, Connor, is said to be someone who didn't believe in love and had actually never been in love before.I like being able to relate to characters in the books I read, but couldn't really "feel" these characters, simply because they didn't feel like realistic characters.The conflicts between Connor and Megan didn't seem too dramatic to me (although they should have been), but more like minor disagreements that were easily and quickly solved.SPOILERS

AHEAD: Megan actually falls in love with Connor and therefore doesn't want to stay in this business-like marriage any longer. Connor, who never felt much for any other person in his life, suddenly realizes that he's in love with her too, so when she leaves him, he goes after Megan to tell her he loves her as well... Everything went far too smooth and made the story a bit dull, imo.END of SPOILERSBut anyhow: If you enjoy a sweet romance, don't mind clichs too much and if happy endings are a must for you, then this story may be a story for you. However, if you prefer more unique storylines and characters with more depth, then this is not a story for you.2 von 2 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Pltzlich verheiratet.Von CustomerAuf dem Junggesellinnenabschied ihrer Cousine in Las Vegas lernt Megan Connor kennen. Sie seilt sich von den anderen ab und verbringt den Abend mit ihm. Nach der durchgefeierten Nacht wacht sie mit einem Ring am Finger in seinem Hotelzimmer auf. Die Heiratsurkunde hngt wie eine Trophe an der Wand. Da sie sich nur an Bruchstcke der Nacht erinnern kann, mchte sie die Hochzeit schnellstmglich annullieren. Doch Connor berredet sie der Ehe eine Chance zu geben, zumal sie sich in der Nacht angeblich bewusst fr die Hochzeit entschieden hat.Eine interessante Geschichte, die sich flssig lesen lsst und die man auch nur mit Schulenglisch-Kenntnissen versteht.

KurzbeschreibungMegan Scott has cast aside all thoughts of a happy-ever-after - there's only so much heartache a girl can take. But when a cocktail-fuelled hen-do goes wrong and shes upgraded from bridesmaid to bride, her plans are forgottenalong with the memory of the night before! Business tycoon Conner Reed is surprised by Megans morning-after reaction. Last night, they'd both been on the same page - a marriage built on mutual needs and attraction, but definitely no L word.Megan can't remember their first kiss, but Conner will try every trick in the book to remind her of their scorching chemistry.And first on the list? Their wedding night!KurzbeschreibungMegan Scott has cast aside all thoughts of a happy-ever-after - there's only so much heartache a girl can take.
