Von Midwest Book ReviewMatt Carrigan is a 20 year CIA veteran field agent. After escaping from an Iraqi prison where he'd been held for two years, Matt determined to quit the agency and rekindle a romance with Lisa. But Carrigan is persuaded into one last assignment: older people are suddenly and inexplicably killing their loved ones. Lisa tags along as the crisis worsens and becomes worldwide. Carrigan must find and stop the person or persons responsible for this global tragedy which becomes so severe and epidemic that the President is in a military stronghold in Utah for his own safety. The situation is bleak and hope begins to fade -- but Carrigan won't give up, won't stop, no matter what or who gets in the way. Web Craze is a superbly crafted novel of absorbing interest and compelling engagement. 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Masterpiece! Von vicki This novel by Ron Cox is truly one of the best novels I have ever read. The story is a perfect blend of action as in "Lethal Weapon", suspense as in a "Steven King" flick, and bedroom romance as in "Eyes Wide Shut". It has just the right amount of twists. Cox is a self published author and should be recognized for his brilliance and hard work. Kudos to you Cox! If the right person should read this, I can almost guarantee a "best seller" and the making of a "superb film!" This story is a work of excellence. For anyone into fast paced action and suspense, this is a MUST READ! 0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. Thrills Chills Von Patti A. If you want thrills and chills, WEB CRAZE is the book to read for "Edge of the Seat, Can't Wait to Turn the Page" excitement. For a second timer in publishing a novel, Ron Cox has the "umph" to tantalize his readers. Can't wait to see what happens next. Good movie material. One question..."is this fact or fiction?" Subliminal messaging via computer. THINK ABOUT IT!

Kurzbeschreibung Matt Carrigan, top-notch twenty-year CIA veteran, is fed up with the agency. After escaping from an Iraqi prison where he's been held for the past two years, Matt's determined to quit the agency and try to rekindle a relationship with his old flame, Lisa. Upon returning to the States, the Deputy CIA Director tries to entice Carrigan into one more assignment. The country is experiencing a strange phenomenon whereby older people are suddenly, and inexplicably killing their loved ones. Carrigan's inability to walk away from a situation, and his inherent need to know, overcome his desire to quit, at least until he finds out what's going on. He agrees to take the case and will leave the agency when the situation is solved so that he and Lisa can start a life together, the one they never had a chance to have. Lisa tags along as the crisis worsens and becomes worldwide. It's clear that something serious is taking place and they must find the person or persons responsible for it, soon. People are committing random acts of murder and banding together in roving groups, killing others without any apparent provocation or reason. The situation is now so dangerous that the only safe place for the President of the United States is a military stronghold in Utah while Carrigan, the Deputy Director and Professor Griffith, the top notch Government scientist, are left at the Pentagon to try and unravel this devastating abnormality. The Director's resolve and determination, coupled with the Professor Griffith's technological genius and Carrigan's ability to control his mind against all forms of mental control, appears to be sufficient to overcome, and destroy this aberration, but their combined efforts are no match for this all powerful super mind. The world's situation can now best be described as bleak as, little by little, all hope begins to fade... Kurzbeschreibung Matt Carrigan, top-notch twenty-year CIA veteran, is fed up with the agency. The Internet can best be described as a vast underground of interconnected electrical impulses. Who knows what really goes on in that unseen worldwide realm between reality and virtual cyber space? Could the Internet be primed and ready for a catastrophic situation to take place? Is it possible that a computer program could take over the Human Race? Will the onset of the computer age mean the end of Mankind as we know it? In this novel, the unthinkable is about to happen. People no longer control their own thoughts as one man is called upon to try and stop a hideous occurrence. Does he have the determination and perseverance to overcome this horrific abomination? Will he have the strength and persistence to succeed?
