Kurzbeschreibung Kara just wants to solve crimes, but the men on the force don't take her seriously. Not that she cares. When the hunt for Russian mob boss Viktor Kruglov proves fruitless, detective Kara Monaghan tries to burn off a little steam with a man who any woman would lose her pants over, upon sight of him. Only problem is that where she decides to make this happen (or let this happen) is in a public restroom. Soon the police are banging on the door. Curragh goes to open it, but she begs him not to. "I'm a cop!" she whispers. "You're a what?!" "Well, he's a wolf. And not just figuratively. He hates cops...but now he's had a taste of one he can't quit. Three stand-alone romantic suspense novels, each starring a different wolf as they try to take down evil in Chicago to save a city that doesn't believe they really exist. Superheroes with no capes or public identity, doing what they have to, to survive. They don't want love, but the wolf knows before the man...Kurzbeschreibung Kara just wants to solve crimes, but the men on the force don't take her seriously. Not that she cares.
