Kurzbeschreibung The Whisper Springs trilogy continues with the story of Claudia and Daniel What are Claudias chances for finding love when her widowed alcoholic father and younger sister and brother depend so much on her? What man would take an interest in her knowing how difficult her life was? Only a man who is no stranger to difficulty himself and who struggles through a deep loss, not unlike Claudias suffering when her mother passed away. But Claudia and Daniels growing love for each other and their dream of setting up a general store in the new town of Whisper Springs in the West pose a threat to Claudias father. Is Daniel man enough to stand up to the troubled but powerful banker? Daniel is forced to choose between two dreams, until Claudia has her say in the matter.
