KundenrezensionenHilfreichste Kundenrezensionen0 von 0 Kunden fanden die folgende Rezension hilfreich. ...packed with love!Von RiinaI'm so happy with this story! The previous short but beautiful piece Inseparable had me hooked from the get go! Same again with its sequel.This is wonderfully written and the characters are simply endearing!It's just packed with love! Now, go read it! :)

KurzbeschreibungSequel to Inseparable Nine and a half weeks ago, Joe Massone got the surprise of his life when his straight best friend and secret crush, Adam, kissed him. At the time, Adam was recovering from an accident that left him with temporary amnesia and broken ribs, so Joe isnt sure if he should take it seriously. Is Adam really gay? Or was the blow to his head to blame? Having secretly loved Adam since they were teenagers, Joe doesnt want to get his hopes up and have his heart broken. Despite that first kiss, Joe and Adam are still in limbonow more than friends, but not quite lovers. Adams injuries have meant they cant take their relationship to the next level, and for Joe, not much has changed from when they were just best friends and roommates. He starts to think neither of them is ready to take that final step. Patience stretched to the limit, Adam makes plans to break the stalemate. But when Joe sabotages things by inviting their friends along, Adam is left to wonder if their new relationship is over before its even started. Before he gives up, though, hes determined to prove to Joe he wants more than just a kiss.
